At Session Friday Afternoon.

Belief in the Word of God, knowledge of how to proceed in matters of faith and perspective powers and an appreciation of the importance of his job are the qualifications necessary for a good Sunday school teacher, according to Rev. P. E. Wright at the morning session of the Licking County Sunday School Association.

"Some great writer has said: 'To teach religion the only thing needed is to find a man who has religion.' We agree that this is fundamental, and no one should be allowed to teach the Holy Word unless they can say with Paul: 'I know in whom I believe—placing the emphasis on know.' He must know how to present the Word. This calls for studiousness on his part which is certain to bring him on his knees before the Great Teacher for wisdom. Teaching requires brains and at least an elementary knowledge of psychology, pedagogy, and the human mind.

At and persuasive, and appreciate his job, which is nothing less than to woo and win his pupils to Christ. Let him teach the Bible and if any substitutes are used we concede that there is something more than the gospel of Jesus Christ. Then teach a positive gospel, emphasizing the 'shall' and the 'must' as they come in the Word.

"Prepare, prepare, prepare." If you are not prepared to do the class, they'll find it out soon enough.

Mr. Wright's Sunday school class attended the session this morning. Reports of county officers were heard and written reports of the division and department officers were read.

A. T. Arnold, state secretary of Columbus, talked on "Our Sunday School Association and the Denominations."

Mrs. Phoebe Curtis, state elementary superintendent, also of Columbus, followed with an address, "Every Inch a Teacher."

Subscriptions for Ohio Sunday school workers were taken and the session closed with song and prayer.

Mr. Standen was unable to attend the morning session but opened the afternoon session with a song service.

Rev. D. A. Greene then led the prayer.

Mrs. Phoebe Curtis' afternoon talk was on "The Ohio Division Standards," while Mr. Arnold spoke in "Community Program of Religious Education."

The election of officers followed the report of committees. Mrs. C. L. led the conference of children's conference. W. F. Harbert presided over the rural conference.

The administration division conference was presided over by F. T. over and Mr. Arnold led the count and township officers' conference.

E. W. Thornton of Cincinnati arrived Friday afternoon at 2:30 and took his place on the program.

In speaking of "Ways That Win" he mentioned four—first, the educational way with emphasis on vision and knowledge; second, the methodical way with emphasis on leaders; third, the personal way with emphasis on sympathy and inspiration; fourth, the devotional way with emphasis on sympathy and inspiration. The four ways combined constitute a real religion.

Mr. Thornton filled a place on this morning's program.

The following committees were appointed Friday afternoon:

On the nominating committee—A. S. Mitchell, chairman; Mrs. J. H. Miller, of Toledo; Mrs. T. J. Alexander of Parkersburg; W. E. Wallace of Jacksonville; Arthur Wyeth of Johnston; and Prof. F. M. Heston of Homer.

Serving on the West Coast committee—Carter of Belmont; George Adams of Cincinnati; Robert Northey of Newark; H. H. Johnston; Mrs. Cora Dicken and Mrs. Mary Bonner of Newark.

Friday evening the main address was given by Rev. Samuel Harvey, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Granville. Mr. Harvey touched upon the career of the life of Jesus; how he worked and was beloved among men while on earth; and how he died for the world. His teaching today if we will make a success in this school work, also, the career of the Apostle Paul. The great work he did after his conversion; how he was glad to tell the story of his conversion and how he said: "Once I was blind but now I can see." Once I was blind but now I can see, said that Bible teachers must have the same power today as these men had when they taught the boy and girls in Bible schools.

Mr. Thornton used "Man What a Chance" as his subject at the evening session and said:

"Reasons why you may feel that you have the chance of your life."

Thirty thousand people in Newark, 12,000 church membership leaving 18,000 who are not in touch with any of the 20 Protestant churches in Newark have in this one of the biggest chances possible.

Four reasons why these folks should be in Bible school: first, the Bible school affords the only chance for a personal acquaintance with Jesus; second, the Bible school affords the only opportunity for the general discussion of the problems of today in the light of the scriptures; third, the Bible school affords the only chance for a personal acquaintance with Jesus; fourth, the Bible school affords the only chance for a personal acquaintance with Jesus.

The Ohio State Sunday School conference will be held in Akron June 17-19 this year.

GERMAN BOYS DROPPED.

Cornelius May 24.—German boys were found at 58 feet to 12 during the week, the Berlin correspondent of the National Tide reports.

CHILDREN SEE CIRCUITS.

Forty boys and girls from the Children's Home saw everything there was to see at the big Hagen-Wallace circus this afternoon. The youngsters were guests of the Newark Rotary club. All the side shows as well as the big menagerie and the "big top" were visited and the peanuts and pink lemonade consumed in quantities which won the admiration of the big brothers for capacity. In addition to the food and entertainment, 40 other youngsters who won the Boston Store puzzle contest, saw the performance.

15 PERISH WHEN
STEAMER BURNS
TO WATER'S EDGE

Steamers Rescue Many Passengers and Part of Vessel's Crew.

Baltimore, May 24.—The Old Bay liner bound to Norfolk from Baltimore with 156 passengers and a full cargo of miscellaneous freight aboard was burned to the water's edge near the mouth of the Potomac river last night.

Lieutenant Commander George L. Davis, U. S. Navy, was a passenger on board the steamer Florida, one of the rescuing ships, stated here today that he believed 10 or 15 persons perished.

Officials of the steamship company, however, expressed belief that the loss of life would be small but they could give no definite figures until the passenger list is compared with the work of some little time as passengers and members of the crew were picked up by at least four other steamers and taken to both Norfolk and Baltimore.

The fire started in the freight hold. Its origin was undetermined. The steamer City of Annapolis also of the Chesapeake line arrived here this morning with four of the passengers of the Virginia, among them being Louis, and John M. Warden of Harrisburg.

Captain of the City of Annapolis said that his ship was about 25 miles away when the burning Virginia was sighted. He did not see the ship at full speed, as did also the masters of the ships Florida, City of Baltimore, Southland, running from Washington to Norfolk and City of Norfolk.

When the City of Annapolis arrived, he found that the fire was blazing so fiercely that he could not approach her. He managed to pick up the four survivors who were in a life boat.

The steamer City of Baltimore with about 100 passengers of the Virginia and the Florida with passengers and members of the crew of the Virginia, followed the City of Annapolis into port. Captain W. G. Lane of the Virginia was aboard the Florida. He was said to be injured but to what extent was not known.

SIDEBOARD IN FIRST SALOON WAS MANTLE-PIECE OVER FIREPLACE

Was Located In Room Now Occupied By McDaniel's Restaurant and Was Operated By "Aunt Hannah" Zipper—Saloon Was Social Center in Those Days.

The passing of the public drinking place, commonly designated as a saloon is about to become a reality.

Many see in its demise a panacea for all the ills, troubles and depressions of the world. In any event it is epochal.

From the pioneer days of the country, the social gathering was more or less attended by drinking. Wines and beers were the earlier day drinks and as the country became settled the tavern served drinks with meals. Most of the small shops where cakes and candies were served, also sold beverages. In the wake of the tavern came the bar rooms.

Keeping pace with the growth of the country, the manufacture and sale of liquors, and alcoholic drinks became one of the large industries of the country.

The saloon is presented a social phase and many events historical import are allied with it. From the family gathering place where the parents took hours to drink a glass of wine, the children played and became a place of lavish decoration and palatial equipment.

Newark as a part of the State of Ohio will on Saturday, May 24, join the rest of the world in celebrating the centennial of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

A resume of the saloon as it is today as it was in the early days, the part it played in the interior, should recall many reminiscences.

There are still a few living who will recall the shop of "Aunt Hannah" Zipper, who early in the 60s operated in North Park Place in the green room, described as the "Aunt Hannah" Zipper.

She descended a few steps into her shop the front of which was an eating house. In connection there was a bakery and if you wanted some cake, you could get it. She had probably the first "side board" for the social drinking from the mouth of the Ohio river.

A familiar thing in the early days was a saloon on South Second street. Now known as the "Aunt Hannah" Zipper, it was a saloon in the old days as did a man named "Nehemiah" who lived on the corner of Second and Third streets. NEW RECORD SET ON PATRONS' DAY

More Than 2300 Visit Schools Thursday—Hudson Avenue Building Has Good Record.

More than 2300 persons visited the Newark schools Thursday, according to figures reported to Superintendent O. J. Barnes, City Hall. The reports were delayed by the Memorial day programs in the schools. Of the more than 2300 people recorded, 1544 were parents of pupils in the schools, a figure which was highly gratifying to Superintendent Barnes, who declared that it is an indication of the keen interest Newark people are taking in the schools.

The fifth grade room of the Hudson Avenue building, Lillian Cox, teacher, had the record percentage of attendance of pupils. Ninety-one per cent of the parents reported in the room visited the school during the day. The room of Miss Vera Stadden with a percentage of 78 was second on the list.

The report does not include the high school inasmuch as patrons' day there only the form of a social event in the evening.

The superintendent visited every room in the city during the day. "I wish to commend every teacher for the interest that was evident and for the neatness and tidiness of the rooms," said Superintendent Barnes. "I also desire to express my appreciation and thanks to the teachers and the board of education for the prompt response of all persons to the invitation to visit the schools."

While words of praise will be given to all of the teachers of the city for the general appearance of the rooms, special mention should be given to the teachers of Conrad school, Miss Jessie Browne, principal.

It is to be hoped that the people of our community will continue to manifest a deep interest in the schools by keeping in close touch with them and by offering suggestions for their improvement. Nothing should be too good for the children of Newark. If the citizens of Newark want their schools to take the first rank, and I believe they do, then they must be willing to provide sufficient funds for their successful operation. It is only a short time until the board of education should launch a building program for the city if the children are to be properly taken care of.

The report of visitors follows:

 Maude Smith, 4th and 5th grade, Central, 75 percent.

HINES ORDERS RAILS BUT KICKS ON PRICE

(Associated Press Telegrams) Washington, May 23.—Although doing so "under protest" and with "emphatic disapproval" of the prices and the manner in which they have been established, Director General Hines announced last night he had awarded to six railroad companies contracts for supplying 200,000 tons of open hearth steel rails at a uniform price of $45 per ton.

BIG COMMUNITY WORK
 That is a good way to get garden results says the National War Garden Commission, of Washington.

RULER HAS ABSOLUTE SWAY

Mongol Monarch is Also Official Head of a Religion, Though Little Known to the World.

The most absolute monarch in the world is the least known. He rules in Urga. It is the capital of Mongolia, and the potentate is at the same time the official head of a religion. He is, in fact, the Mongol pope.

Urga is to some extent a modern town, having many Chinese and Russian inhabitants; but the native portion of it bears no resemblance to anything that can be found anywhere else on earth. For this Mongol part of the city is movable and constantly changes its location and arrangement.

The Mongol houses are hemispherical huts of felt cloth extended over a light structure of lattice-work. They are readily collapsible, and can be put up or taken down at a few minutes' notice. Felt cloth being an excellent insulator, they afford a warm and weatherproof shelter during winters of extreme cold.

There are at Urga, however, a number of large monasteries. It is the holy city of the Mongols. The priests (called "lamas") are numbered by hundreds of thousands, and their "lamineries" are scattered all over the country.

The business of the lamas is to drive away the evils which, but for their pious activity, would soon destroy all the people. At intervals they give great outdoor exhibitions of a quasi-theatrical character, in which hundreds of lamas take part, dancing in grotesque masks and fantastic costumes to music furnished by drums, huge copper trumpets and flutes made from the thighbones of virgins—the last named horrible instruments emitting blood-curdling and mournful wails.

NOTED MEN NAMED WILLIAM

Long List of Those Who Attained the Front Rank as Writers, Poets and Statesmen.

There have been more famous Williams than men of any other name, and the majority of these Williams have been writers, poets and statesmen, but rarely musicians, for William is evidently not a musical name.

The list of poets is a long one: William Shakespeare, the greatest English writer; William Cowper, the English poet who wrote "On Receipt of My Mother's Picture"; William Wordsworth, the English poet, who wrote "Lucy Gray"; William Blake, who wrote "The Marriage of Hell and Heaven"; William Collins, the English writer; William Morris, the pre-Raphaelite, who began life as a designer, invented the Morris chair and translated several volumes from the Icelandic; William Allingham, the Irish poet, who wrote "Lovely Mary Donnelly"; William Yeats, the Irish playwright, and the American poet, William Cullen Bryant, who wrote "Lines to a Water-Fowl."

Besides these poets we have the prose writers: William Makepeace Thackeray, England's second greatest novelist, and who wrote "Vanity Fair"; William Rossetti, brother of Dante Gabriel Rossetti, and the great art critic; William Dean Howells, the American novelist; William Hall Caine, the novelist known as Hall Caine, and William Sharp, the Irish writer, who wrote under the name of Fiona Macleod.

Bernhardt and Rostand.

Mme. Bernhardt's admiration for Edmond Rostand was due in part at least to natural human gratitude. When once a guest of the great actress at Belle Isle, her lonely island home near Quiberon, the distinguished dramatist had rescued her from drowning. But apart from this she always swore by him. I have heard her rhapsodize in terms that seemed extravagant about his genius. He was to her the beginning and end of that form of the drama in which she had excelled as an interpreter. She loved him as a reaction visible against realism, as a protest against Isen and a reprieve of the flamboyant in art. Yet who can doubt that when Rostand is forgotten men will know Isen? The romantic episode at Belle Isle merely strengthened Mme. Bernhardt's profound and touching faith in this follower of Hugo.—Exchange.

Getting Down to Business.

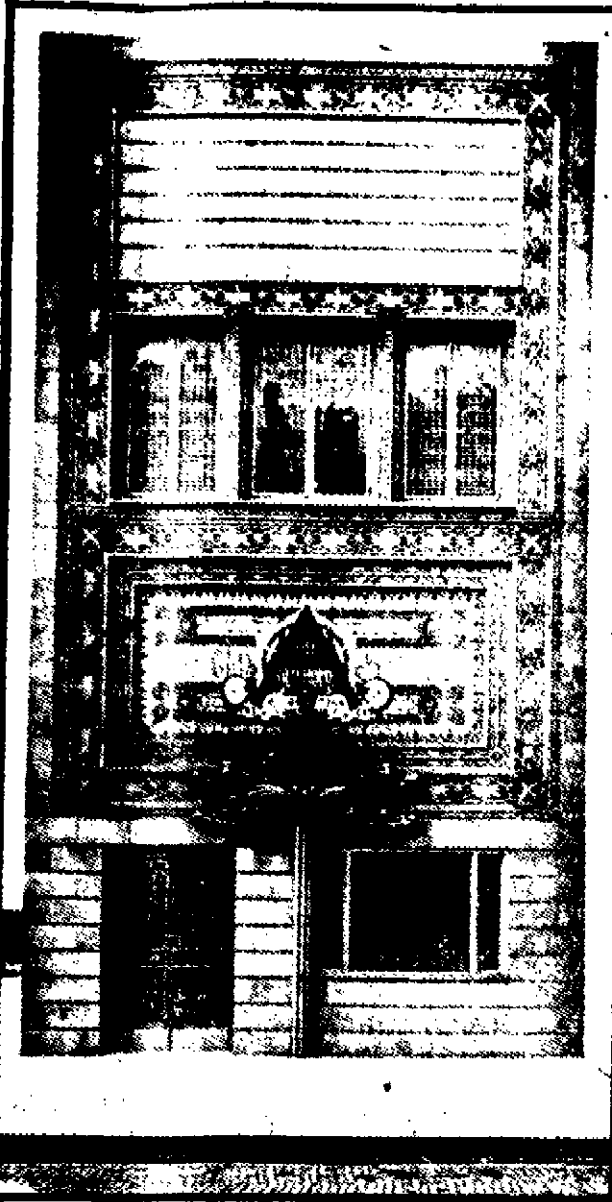

If there's any one thing that marks the big man it is his ability to get down to business. While the average fellow sits drumming at his desk the man of skill starts things. There may be a thousand things to do, but they will be done sooner if they are done one at a time. It's a fine thing to be able at a glance to spot the essential and go at it. The next best thing is to get busy at the job that seems to be most urgent and put that on the shelf as a finished product. You are then ready for the next thing. But it's just the lack of this ability that puts the sprag in most men's progress. They are confused by the many things to be done. Instead of getting busy at once they waste time in wondering where to begin. It's no wonder they fail to accomplish things.

Too Limited a Route.

"Would you object to marrying a traveling man?"
 "Not if he travels far enough," replied Miss Cavender. "I couldn't care for one of these chaps who puts in all his time traveling between here and Baltimore."

SMALL DAMAGE DONE AT B. & O. SHOP FIRE

An alarm of fire at 12 o'clock this morning called out the Central, East and West End fire companies to the B. & O. shop. The fire was confined to the roof of the building and was extinguished by the fire-fighting apparatus. The damage was small and the building was repaired. The fire was caused by a short circuit in the wiring.

PLEDGE TAKEN BY EVERY MEMBER OF BOY SCOUTS

It is hoped that the movement now on foot to establish the Boy Scouts on a firm basis in Licking county will result in enrolling 600 or more boys in the organization. Boys of 12 years or older are eligible for membership.

Every boy before becoming a Scout makes this promise:

On my Honor I Will Do My Best,

1. To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout Law;

2. To help other people at all times;

3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

A Scout is trustworthy. A Scout's honor is to be trusted. If he were to violate his honor by telling a lie, or by cheating, or by not doing exactly a given task, when trusted on his honor, he may be directed to hand over his Scout badge.

A Scout is loyal. He is loyal to all to whom loyalty is due; his country, his home, and parents and country.

A Scout is helpful. He must be prepared at any time to save life, help injured persons, and share the home duties.

He must do at least one good turn to somebody every day.

A Scout is friendly. He is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout.

A Scout is courteous. He is polite to all, especially to women, children, old people, and the weak and helpless.

He must not take pay for being helpful or courteous.

A Scout is kind. He is a friend to animals. He will not kill nor hurt any living creature, but will strive to save and protect all harmless life.

A Scout is obedient. He obeys his parents, Scoutmaster, patrol leader, and all other duly constituted authorities.

A Scout is cheerful. He smiles when ever he can. He is cheerful to orders, is prompt and cheery. He never shirks nor grumbles at hardships.

A Scout is thrifty. He does not wantonly destroy property. He works faithfully, wastes nothing, and makes the best use of his opportunities. He saves his money so that he may pay his own way, be generous to those in need, and helpful to worthy objects. He may work for pay, but must not receive tips for courtesies or good turns.

A Scout is brave. He has the courage to face danger in spite of fear, and to stand up for the right against the coaxings of friends or the jeers or threats of enemies, and defeat does not down him.

A Scout is clean. He keeps clean in body and thought, stands for clean speech, clean sport, clean habits, and travels with a clean crowd.

A Scout is reverent. He is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties, and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion.

NEWARK WOMEN HOLD A MEETING IN INTEREST W. S. S.

Miss Dorothy Mae Burrell, head of the women's division of the Ohio War Savings committee, came from Columbus today to attend a meeting of Newark women in Taylor hall. This meeting called by Mrs. Ernest T. Johnson, county chairman of the women's division, is for the purpose of organizing the women of this city and interesting them in helping to put Ohio "over the top" again this year.

Ohio has the proud distinction of being one of two states in the Union to meet its 1918 quota of War Savings stamps and so far this year the sale of stamps in Ohio is greater than that of any other state in the Union. Licking county was among the first in Ohio last year and up to the present time stands fourth in the sale of the 48 counties in Ohio in the 1919 W. S. S. campaign.

Miss Burrell reports that the women in practically every county in the state have been organized for effective work in the W. S. S. campaign. There are some interesting features of the work which Miss Burrell will explain at this afternoon's meeting. Women who were unable to attend today's meeting and who desire to have a part in this patriotic work are invited to communicate with Mrs. E. T. Johnson, 403 Hudson avenue. Automatic telephone No. 7299.

Beautiful gold and silver pins are to be given in the women's W. S. S. campaign.

James G. Cooper, mail-carrier, is making a fine record in the W. S. S. campaign and is among the leaders in the state. One mail-carrier from each county in Ohio is to be given a lake trip this summer and it is probable that two or three will be sent from Licking county.

The W. S. S. cash sale from January 1 to date in Licking county exceeded $215,000.

New "Bring 'Em Back" clubs have been organized in honor of Earl Gleason of Johnston, and Geo. M. Dyer, 305 West Locust street, Newark, N. M.

Other clubs are in the process of formation. To organize a club requires the purchase, or the pledge to purchase 100 W. S. S. stamps, the price of which in May is $416.

To the Ohio county that makes the best showing in W. S. S. sales this summer, not the largest volume of sales, but the best percentage, will be given a $10,000 granite memorial. Through organized effort Licking county is working hard to win this prize as any county in Ohio.

The Licking county soldiers of the 324th field artillery are now in New York en route home from Germany. Some of their names are now posted upon the courthouse park bulletin boards in the list of "Bring 'Em Back" clubs but others are not. Now is the time to post their names. Is the name of THAT soldier there? If not, buy 100 W. S. S. stamps in his honor and have his name posted.

Licking county's war record will be 100 per cent when this year's quota of W. S. S. is absorbed and not before. United effort will result in putting Licking in the Victory class very quickly. Buy W. S. S. now. They are the world's best investment.

A telegram received in Newark today advises that the $1000 and the $100 War Savings certificates have been engraved and will be put on sale soon. This will meet the demand of the larger investors and open up an even wider market for the world's best investment. One may soon be able to buy a $1000 W. S. S. or a $100 stamp. The 25-cent Thrift Stamps and the $5 stamps will be continued as usual.

CONSUMERS QUILTS BEER BUSINESS NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

Superintendent Henry Schnaidt of the Consumers Products company stated today that the Consumers plant will close Monday night instead of to night and would be open for business until that time after which the plant would be operated as a soft drink manufactory and continue to bottle its new product "Whistle" which is acquiring the reputation of being one of the best as well as the most pleasing drinks on the market.

"After Monday," said Superintendent Schnaidt, "we will branch out in the business and in addition to Whistle will bottle one of the most palatable root beers ever sold in the city as well as ginger ale and other soft drinks permitted under the prohibition laws.

"We have reorganized our sales force, installed new machinery and new equipment will be second to none, comparing with the modern improved plants of the larger cities. Our force of employees will be increased rather than diminished and we expect to create a demand for our products that will keep them employed every day in the year."

The Old Consumers Brewing company includes a number of local stockholders all of whom are interested in the new Consumers Products company, and they will assist in the booming of the plant which will give employment to a large number of local people.

The brewing end of the business and the delivery of the stock on hand ceases Monday evening after a continuous operation of many years.

Small Crowd Sees Swim.
Only a small crowd saw the swimming exhibit at the Y. M. C. A. last night. Paul Hanyan won the plunge for distance, and Charles Allen won the candle race. On account of the long baseball game, Mr. Grieser failed to appear in the scheduled fancy swimming stunts. Another swimming exhibition is planned for the latter part of June.

Leutenant Childs Visits Here.
Leutenant L. M. Childs, who recently returned from overseas, is spending a 15-day furlough with his wife at the home of Mrs. Childs' father, A. J. Childs of North Cedar street. Leutenant Childs will return to Camp Sherman.

Arthur Beasley Returns.
Private Arthur W. Beasley arrived home last night after seeing 12 months of service in the United States signal corps in France. He has been in many of the trying battles of the war on the western front, having been gassed a few days prior to the signing of the armistice. Recovering from this, the army of occupation was his next service. He left Marseilles, May 9.

PHARIS TIRES BUILT IN FLORIDA FOR EXHIBITION

Duplicating the demonstration made yesterday, the public can today, at 10:30 o'clock this morning and at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, see the complete construction of an automobile tire from the raw materials.

This demonstration will be made in the chamber of commerce building where an exhibition is being held in connection with the convention of the Alabama, Florida and Georgia Retail Hardware association. Wm. G. Knittle, chief inspector of the Pharis Tire and Rubber company of Newark, O., will show the way a Pharis tire is built from the raw materials which have been shipped here from the plant in Ohio.

The demonstration yesterday attracted the greatest attention and interest, and the two demonstrations today will undoubtedly attract many. A large attendance is expected both this morning and again this afternoon. Carl Pharis, general manager of the Pharis Tire and Rubber company, is in the city and will be present. Everyone is invited to attend these demonstrations.—Florida Times-Union.

SAY CONGREGATION ISN'T AFTER WELSH CHURCH

"The officers of the A. M. E. church are trying to force the old Welsh church on the congregation," said Mrs. Lee Jackson and Miss Fanny Faithful of 417 Granville street, today. They made the statement following the story which appeared in The Advocate last night that the A. M. E. church was endeavoring to purchase the old Welsh church in North Fourth street to be used by the colored people.

"We are not seeking the old Welsh church," said Miss Faithful. "If we want an old church we will use the one we already have. The members are not seeking an old church. They want a new church and want it erected in East Church street, where the present A. M. E. church stands. The officers or trustees of the church are the ones who are trying to force the old Welsh church on us."

ELEPHANT'S BATH TAKES 150 POUNDS SOAP AND $100 WORTH OF OLIVE OIL, NURSE SAYS

Scrubbed with soap and water

Then rubbed with sandpaper

And anointed with olive oil.

The elephant at the Carl Hagenback-Wallace circus doesn't get a bath every Saturday night like most of its mortals. It costs too much money and besides it would be on continual bath for the elephant. It takes a week to properly bathe and anoint the monster. The circus men perform the stunt in the spring before the show starts out. First comes a lot of soap and water. It takes 150 pounds of soap. Then they scrubber his hide and after they get his surface so smooth a fly would crack his head in alighting there. $100 worth of olive oil is rubbed over his skin. Olive oil is fine for the complexion and the mouse-gray skin is made supple and glistening.

GREETINGS FROM THE SUNNY SOUTH

Rev. Geo. Bohon Schmitt who with Mrs. Schmitt went to Birmingham, Ala., this week to attend the Kiwanis convention writes May 21 to The Advocate saying:

Greetings from the land of King Cotton and especially of the Pittsburgh of the South.

The roses are in full bloom and King Corn has made his appearance to a height of six to eight inches. While quite cool for this time of year for this section yet delightful for convention purposes. Kiwanis has thus far had a most remarkable convention. Hope to get back for my services at St. Paul's Sunday.

A stock Model 90 Overland touring car again proved its stamina by smashing completely the world's non-stop high gear record. This test was made in Oklahoma.

The car was sealed in high gear and the shift lever was removed. Not once was there the slightest mechanical trouble, the least hesitation, or the faintest break in the smooth, even action of the Overland motor.

This standard car is an exact duplicate of the Model 90 we will be glad to show you.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM.
"Common Clay."
It is estimated that "Common Clay," the Harvard prize play by Clevie Kinkead, in which Jane Cowd achieved one of her most notable successes, has been witnessed by more than five million persons.

The estimates include a large percentage of those who witnessed the stage presentation and naturally will be curious to see how more fully it may be done on the screen, and the millions of moving picture lovers who are alert for the coming of a really imposing feature.

"Common Clay" is one of those commendably produced, with absolute fidelity to its minutest detail. The scenes in Arizona were taken on the desert, and in its every feature the production reflects careful and conscientious direction. The picture will be shown at the Auditorium theatre beginning Monday.

"The Better Ole."
"The Better Ole," or the romance of Old Bill, is the big comedy success of the season. It is now playing to capacity houses at the Cort Theatre in New York City, and five road companies are presenting it in various parts of the country. And now, on the screen you will have an opportunity at

"The Blinding Trail."
One of those gripping stories of the photoplay favorite to the screen after a long absence, and is the first time in which he has appeared before the motion picture public under his own management. It is being presented by Hiram Abrams.

"Hearts of Men" is the type of photoplay that can be truly described as "making dimples to catch the tears." The picture quickly alternates from humor to pathos, from comedy to drama. The plot recites the ludicrous and tragic adventures of a poor Italian who sells his florist shop in order to buy some "high, dry land," on the instructions of a doctor. The picture is commendably produced, with absolute fidelity to its minutest detail. "Hearts of Men" is the type of photoplay that can be truly described as "making dimples to catch the tears." The picture quickly alternates from humor to pathos, from comedy to drama. The plot recites the ludicrous and tragic adventures of a poor Italian who sells his florist shop in order to buy some "high, dry land," on the instructions of a doctor. The picture is commendably produced, with absolute fidelity to its minutest detail. The scenes in Arizona were taken on the desert, and in its every feature the production reflects careful and conscientious direction. The picture will be shown at the Auditorium theatre beginning Monday.

ALHAMBRA
Too Fat to Fight.

A real war hero appears in Rex Beach's "Too Fat to Fight," in which Frank McIntyre is the featured player. He is Lieut. Frank Badgley of the British Army, who won a decoration for his bravery at Courcette in France where he remained in an unprotected position, signalling the oncoming battlements and keeping up mean of communication between the detachments. For this he won his Distinguished Service Cross.

This feature "Trout," a Prizma Colored subject. The International News and Billy Church make up the Alhambra closing program for today.

POWERS DECIDE TO RECOGNIZE KOLCHALK RULE

Russians Must Agree To Abide By Verdict of People.

AUSTRIA WILL GET TERMS OF TREATY DURING WEEK

Italian Question Also May Be Decided by Conference.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, May 26.—The Council of Four of the peace conference has decided conditionally to recognize the anti-Bolshevik government of Admiral Kolchak and General Denikin, according to Reuters' agency here.

The condition of the recognition are those regarding the future of Russia. These governments agree to recognize and accept the verdict of a genuine constituent assembly.

Likewise that the league of nations covenant and its consequences as affecting the boundaries of the former empire are accepted.

The constituent assembly is to determine the future form of government for Russia.

This week, during which it is expected the terms of peace for Germany, Austria will be presented to her delegates, may witness also the solution of the problems raised by the conflicting claims of Italy and Yugoslavia in the Adriatic area.

Paris, May 26.—The peace conference is taking up the problem now, with Great Britain, France and Italy seeking to have the secret pact made among them at London in 1915 provide the basis for the settlement.

Germany's counterproposals to the terms of peace dictated by the allies are expected to be presented to the peace conference tomorrow.

Capt. C. W. Morgan.

Capt. C. W. Morgan, who was to attempt the trans-Atlantic flight from St. Johns, N. F., with F. P. Raynham in a Martinsyde plane, has been advised by physicians that he must not fly again. He was cut about the face when the plane crashed in the water.

Raynham intends to obtain a new aid and continue plans for the flight.

HUN FAVOR MILITARY DISARMAMENT IN NOTE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Sunday, May 25.—Information has been received from an unimpeachable source that the counterproposal to be made by Germany to the peace conference will declare in favor of military disarmament, saying that Germany is ready to reduce her forces to 300,000 within two months after the conclusion of the war.

It will be declared that in spite of internal disorders and the necessity for defending her frontiers, Germany does not desire to disarm ahead of all other powers.

It is pointed out that this gives adequate proof of Germany's determination to renounce all militaristic and imperialistic tendencies.

RUSSIAN CABINET IS BEING REORGANIZED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Moscow, Tuesday, May 26.—The work of reorganizing the cabinet of the all-Russian government is proceeding, it being intended to effect closer coordination with the military and civil authorities.

Among the lines of the program adopted by Admiral Kolchak, former Minister of Justice and Education, Mr. Starikovitch and Mr. Sapozhnikov, have been succeeded by Professor Tolstoy and Mr. Luchinsky, who is believed will direct the work of the two departments to better advantage.

It is also proposed to combine the ministry of war with the general staff under the presidency of the chief of staff, General Lebedev, who will move to Ekaterinburg, where he will be near the scene of operations.

OFFICIAL END OF LIQUOR BUSINESS SET FOR TONIGHT

Only 163 Saloons In Ohio Cling to Extra Day of Grace.

PRIVATE STOCKS WILL LAST MANY DAYS REPORTS SHOW

Can't Legally Import Liquor Into State After Monday Midnight.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, May 26.—Ohio may have passed her peak in the liquor industry, and doubtless will—but if there is any question about it, today is the day it will be settled.

Midnight tonight marks the official end of the liquor business in Ohio. If not authentic—death of liquor business in the state with no "ifs" or "buts" so far as present states go.

Saturday the semi-official passing out day but the last sad rites will be chanted today, for the remaining 163 bars from a more or less flourishing 5,000 of a few days ago, will sell their wares and lock up for good and all as liquor stores.

Officially "John Barleycorn" will have passed on. Unofficially, however, the state has a private stock that is worth millions stored and hidden away against the rainy days that start with tomorrow's sunrise and continue daily till the last day's that with tomorrow's sunrise dregs have been drained from the householders' cellars.

The package business, general reports indicate, never has been better in Ohio.

Today's business may be limited to a "morning after" nip rather than to a general closing, it is believed, that marked Saturday throughout Ohio for the very simple reason that the 163 saloons left are well enough scattered that it will not be possible for the state to go agrog again.

However, the 163 saloons will carry over a lunch. The best evidence that shelves in them are well stocked lies in the fact that proprietors saw fit to pay $305 in licenses and other fees merely to remain open the one day.

A few of the big hotels maintaining bars as a part and parcel of their establishments, and some of the well-to-do independent saloons with big stocks on hand will supply the needy in most of the larger cities of the state.

MORE RIOTS IN GERMANY EXPECTED AS DELEGATES BALK AT SIGNING THE TREATY

Crowds discussing news from Paris in Berlin street.

Serious rioting in Berlin and other big centers of Germany are expected hourly as the German peace delegates continue their defiant attitude and refuse to sign the treaty. The German people want them to sign the treaty so that the fatherland may settle down and begin its reconstruction.

The picture shows how the people gather in groups to discuss the news from Paris. A leader and a few fiery words are all that are needed to turn these people into a mob.

POLICE ARREST 42 IN LAST HOURS OF SALOONS; THREE ARE OPEN TODAY

Police Had Less Trouble Than They Anticipated With Those Who Celebrated Departure of John Barleycorn—Raffling of Liquor Stopped by Mayor.

Thirty-nine saloons in this city closed their doors Saturday at midnight, to remain closed so long as Ohio remains in the prohibition column, and three more which had been open today by paying a tax of $205 will close tonight at midnight.

There was not as much trouble as was anticipated during the closing hours but the police officials were kept busy gathering in the drunks and until Sunday, had a record of 42, the motor patrol being on constant duty from early in the evening until day light.

Hundreds of men could be seen with suspicious looking packages under their arms and had they been placed on this play it would have resembled an assembly of very thing intoxicating for many of the third parties conducted in the city in order to get rid of the stock on hand.

Several well-known places disposed of hundreds of dollars worth of stock, and it is said that several of them were forced to close before midnight because they had nothing more to sell.

Mayor Alderton and Police Chief J. S. Sheridan, too, notified those places that remained open that no raffling of stock would be allowed and those desiring to obtain a supply for future use would have to purchase it in the regular way.

ENGLISH AIRMEN CONGRATULATE WIFE OF HAWKER

Many Call at Pilot's Home To Express Their Joy.

DARING AVIATOR PICKED UP BY STEAMER IN MID OCEAN

Absence of Wireless On Vessel Kept News From World.

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Sunday, May 25.—There was a merry party in the home of Harry G. Hawker, near Sutton tonight, many callers, including Thomas G. M. Sop with, head of the Sopwith Aviation company, builders of the machine in which Hawker attempted to cross the Atlantic, going to the house to congratulate Mrs. Hawker.

Mrs. Hawker never lost confidence that her husband would be rescued. Even on Saturday evening she was still joyful, declaring that Sunday was her lucky day and said: "We shall have good news tomorrow."

Today her home was inundated with telegrams of congratulation and the telephone in the lavishly furnished dwelling was constantly ringing.

In a message expressing his own and the queen's sympathy and condolence, King George, on Saturday, expressed his fear that Hawker had lost his life.

"I feel that the nation has lost one of its most able and daring pilots and that he is a great loss to the nation," said the king.

An official statement confirming news dispatches of the rescue of Hawker and Lieutenant Commander MacKenzie Grieve was issued tonight.

Harry G. Hawker and Lieutenant Commander Grieve were rescued at latitude 50 degrees and 29 minutes north and longitude 12 degrees and 30 minutes west, owing to a defect in the water circulation of their motor. Both men in perfect health. The airplane was not saved.

Hawker sent the following message from the Revenge to the London Daily Mail: "My machine stopped owing to the water filter in the feed pipe from the radiator to the water pump being blocked with refuse, such as solder, the like shaking loose in the radiator."

"It was no fault of the engine or motor, which ran absolutely perfect from start to finish, even when all the water had boiled away."

"We had no trouble in landing on the sea, where we were picked up by the tramp ship Mary, after being in the water 30 minutes."

"The airplane, a Sopwith, was not salvaged."

Some 1100 hundred miles out from New Foundland and 500 from the Irish coast, on Monday, May 19, the aviators, making the first attempt, which was failing to function properly, were forced to alight on the water. The little Danish steamer Mary, bound from New Orleans and Norfolk for Arrahang, Denmark, picked the aviators up and continued their northward voyage.

Lacking a wireless outfit, the captain of the steamer was obliged to withhold the good tidings of the rescue until he was opposite Hull, where the news was telegraphed to the world by means of flags that Hawker and Grieve were aboard his ship.

Immediately word was flashed to the British admiralty, which sent the destroyer, the Danish vessel and obtain confirmation. This was done, and one of the destroyers took the air men off and later transferred them to the flagship Revenge.

When the information was spread by means of flags that Hawker and Grieve were aboard his ship.

FIRST CIRCUS PLEASES CROWD

Trained Horses With New Features Prove Big Entertainment Feature.

Newark's first circus, the Hagenback Wallace show, has come and gone. Following a big success performance, a large crowd assembled under the big tent for the evening show. The performance was up to standard in every respect, giving a clean, well arranged program.

The show opened with the grand march of all performers and animals and the status of the show was followed. The show then featured its animal acts. Tigers and lions rode horseback and one of the big cats rode the back of an elephant.

The thrills were all there, the trapeze performers and the wire walkers had new stunts, and the program included head slides, hair slides, foot slides and four slides by Mr. and Miss Morris.

SAYS WILSON ASKED BAN ON PART OF TREATY

Paris, May 25.—(Havas)—The French government today declared that it was on the request of President Wilson that the heads of the allied and associated powers have decided to permit publication of the full text of the peace treaty presented to the German President Wilson adds the new paper, "L'Express" in view of the importance of the treaty and the risk in opening an important discussion in the United States of which this is absent.

Dispatches from American correspondents in Paris have stated that it was understood the chief opposition to making the treaty public came from Premier Lloyd George, although President Wilson later had approved the French premier's view. It was stated, however, that while Lloyd George was absent from Paris the week before last, the premiering government had been in agreement to the publication of the treaty, owing to the demand of the French chamber of deputies to see the document. When Lloyd George returned he declined to give his approval to the plan, however, and it was abandoned.

In the British house of commons on Monday, May 19, Andrew Bonar Law, the government leader, stated that the council of four for peace, which could not be disclosed, was in agreement to the publication of the treaty, owing to the demand of the French chamber of deputies to see the document. When Lloyd George returned he declined to give his approval to the plan, however, and it was abandoned.

One of Newark's Oldest Citizens Succumbs to Infirmities—Was Resident Here 70 Years.

John Hetrick, one of Newark's oldest citizens, died yesterday at his home. He was 90 years old and had been a resident of Newark for 70 years. He was a well-known figure in the community and was loved by all who knew him.

John Hetrick was born in 1829 in New York City. He came to Newark in 1859 and lived there for the remainder of his life. He was a member of the Newark Historical Society and was active in many of its projects.

ROADSTER HITS CAR WOMAN'S ARM BROKEN

Mrs. Henry Mattingly, 50, of Mattingly street, was injured yesterday when a roadster hit her car. The accident occurred on a busy street and the woman was taken to the hospital for treatment of her broken arm.

WOMAN FOUND DEAD IN BED ON SUNDAY

The body of a woman was found in her bed on Sunday morning. The woman was identified as Mrs. Mary A. McCann, 45, of Logan avenue. She had been ill for some time and her death was a great loss to her family.

AVIATION OFFICER TO HEAD LARGEST FLYERS' ACADEMY

A new aviation academy is being organized in Newark, headed by a former military aviator. The academy will provide training for young men interested in flying and will be one of the largest of its kind in the country.

Lieut. Raynor Garey is a former military aviator and is now the head of the new aviation academy. He has extensive experience in flying and will be able to provide valuable instruction to the students of the academy.
